Traffic Topics Webinar

Jay Hietpas leads MnDOT's Connected and Automated Vehicles policy, research and deployment efforts

Tuesday, May 15, 2018, 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Water's Edge, conference rooms A&C

To access the webinar:

Join Skype Meeting

Trouble Joining? Try Skype Web App

Help

If you are unable to access audio through Skype, listen via conference call:
dial-in number: 888-742-5095
conference code: 1658926687

Presentation overview

In March, Governor Dayton passed an executive order supporting the research and deployment of connected and automated vehicles.   This presentation will discuss what MnDOT is currently doing to advance both connected and automated vehicle technology in Minnesota.

Presenter

Before moving into his current role of leading connected and automated vehicle efforts for MnDOT, Jay Hietpas was the State Traffic Engineer.   His other work experience includes leading MnDOT's alternative contracting, project management, and construction.